

Think board

Think boards can be used to make connections between different mathematical concepts or for students to visually represent their understandings and strategies in a range of ways.

