

THEME

Theme is a statement about life, arising from the interplay of key elements of the text (plot, character, setting and language).

These elements work together in a coherent way to achieve the purpose of the text. Themes convey an attitude or value about an idea in the text and they can be challenged.