

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would help Jackie talk to Julia to be friends again.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

This situation may be avoided by using a code of conduct.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

A code of conduct might prevent this situation. The players would know what to do and what not to do in the game.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I stayed away from my friend and didn't talk to her much.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

My friend stopped doing nasty things to me.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Avoid being friends with people who will just cause drama.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Zainab

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would tell Julia to be friends with Jackie and listen to what she has to say.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

stopping both of them from arguing and make them friends again.

Talk to them about how we all use to be really good friends.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes it would because if there was a code of conduct, Julia wouldn't push Jackie over, probably. She would get detention or <sup>had to</sup> saying sorry to Jackie.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

If I knew that Julia was aiming to hurt Jackie if I was fast enough I would try to get in her way and stop her. ~~or if I~~ ~~was that or talk it out and~~ before she was going to hurt her.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

Jackie wouldn't get hurt. And Julia would understand that ~~violence~~ violence isn't the answer, and she should listen to what Jackie has to say and work it out nicely.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

- If there was a misunderstanding, I would tell Julia before she gets mad.
- ~~when the argument~~ at the beginning of the argument talk about something fun.
- Stop the argument.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would try to ask other friends what to do and ask them to help Julia and Jackie.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

This type of situation may be avoided by telling the teacher and using the code of conduct

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because the code of conduct can show how to prevent this type of situation and that the situation is wrong.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation. <sup>tried to</sup>
I stayed away with my friends but i listen~~ed~~ to them.
_____
_____

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?
listening to my friends ~~is~~ were effective because i knew what the problem was.
_____
_____

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.
1. stay away
2. try to listen to the problem.
_____
_____

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would just tell them to stop or just tell Julia to not be mean to Jackie and just try to sort it out together so they can be friends again.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

If they just tried to sort it out responsibly like friends they wouldn't be in this argument

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Maybe, because they may not know how to do those rules cause they don't get along very easily.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

~~#1~~ Once I was in an argument just like that ~~story~~ and we argued about a stupid thing and screamed at each other and didn't talk to one in other for some time.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

Everything turned out just fine, cause we talked about it and solved the problem out with out fussing and shouting at each other, then we just forgot about it and moved on.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

- Talk to that person about it.
- Don't shout at each other.
- Be responsible.
- Don't just say nothing sort it out with them.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I could tell both of them to tell me when they are fighting and then I would try to fix it and also tell them to try to talk to each other with a cool mind.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

This could be avoided by talking it over with the other person without violence. It also could be avoided if they said they "when in a moment they fight they could try to understand what the person is trying to say."

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes. If a code of conduct was there then the situation could have been avoided by keeping a code like "never include violence in an argument, talk about it with the other person peacefully."

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I would tell both of them to tell me why they are arguing first. then I would try to make both of them talk it out. then tell them that every one sometime might say some some thing wrong, so forgive them. It was a mistake.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

Maybe saying that every one makes mistakes will make them forgive each other because it is true. ~~it happened~~.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

- Stop them from back talking behind each others backs.
- Keep them in a positive mood.
- Keep them close. hangout with both of them.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would call both of my friends and talk to them. I will let both of them explain. ~~and~~

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

* I will tell them that if they have problems with each other don't bring it in the game. have a talk to both of them.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes because if you have an argument with each other they don't have to bring it in the game.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I felt angry because the umpire didn't solve the problem in the right way.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

I dealt with it bad.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

- I could keep my anger in.
- Walk away from the argument.
- Keep away from the argument.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Sophie.
Sophie

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I'll come to Julia and talk to her <sup>and tell her to</sup> stop that. Jackie was her friend before so come and say sorry to Jackie. If she say no, I'll try to explain to her that Jackie is not that bad, she trying to be friends with you but ~~you~~ doesn't listen.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

I'll try to make them be friend again. For example, I'll make them talk together so they can understand more about each other. ~~and~~

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because it means to set of rule outline the expected behaviour for an individual or group and it should base on fair for everyone - fair, integrity, respect and responsibility.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

Someone cheating in the test.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

My friend and I saw a student in class cheated.
My friend about to tell the teacher but I tell her to not to.
And I'd came to the student cheated in the test and told her to not do it again because if he do it again
I'll tell the teacher and he might get in detention and - mark.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

He'll scared of detention so he not do it again

---

---

---

---

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

- Tell the teacher if someone cheat in the test so they keep a close eye to that student.
- During the test, if you saw someone cheat, tell them to stop immediately.
- Do not bring pencil case and bags into the test room.

A

B

C.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would tell Julia to calm down and don't start anything bad with Jackie. I would tell Julia that what she had done is wrong.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

If they didn't have the fight or Julia should have listen to what Jackie wanted to say

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because ~~that~~ that is not sportsman ship if that happens and if that happens in a real game Julia would get disqualified and Jackie wouldn't be able to play.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

Tell them to stop and think about what they are doing.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

They both can think about it and make up while they are at it.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

let them make up before the game.
don't get in their way and let them figure it themselves.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

~~this is why i don't have friends~~

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would convince Julia that ~~Jackie~~ to be friends with Jackie again. If she (Julia) doesn't want to then ~~Julia~~ she should just leave Jackie alone.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

~~Do not be a~~ They should play fair and ~~take~~ ~~game~~ they should leave their personal conflicts outside the game.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

~~Yes~~, Implementing a code of conduct would prevent further injuries and interruptions in the game. Players must respect each other and ~~in~~ the game.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.
If i was jackie i wouldn't cry because its not like julia punched her or any thing? Any ways, i'd probably do the same thing to julia and barge her over. On the other hand, if i was julia i wouldn't do that because im not that mean.
2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.
By not being salty and talking about it politely.
3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.
No. Because ~~some~~ people don't care about rules when it comes to getting revenge.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I told the teacher about the incident.

---

---

---

---

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

I didn't myself take action and act in a foolish way. I let the teachers deal with it.

---

---

---

---

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Don't ~~the~~ take Arguments too far.

---

---

---

---

Leyla.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would go and get them both and sit together and talk about it, I would tell them both to say sorry and encourage them to be friends with each other again.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

Try to avoid arguments with your friends and if it does occur don't aim and try to hurt them.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

I think it would help as people need to follow the rules and then no one should get hurt.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

Everyone and I stopped arguing with our ~~oppose~~ opponents and that caused less conflict.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

That we obviously let the other team win the argument as we stopped first and they thought we gave up and had nothing else to say, but then it did cause less conflict.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

- Play fairly.
- Try not to bring up silly reasons why they should have lost a point and things, otherwise it will start an argument and cause conflict.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

If Jackie was hurt I would still go and help her even though Julia said she is a horrible person. Since Julia is being a nasty person I would be angry at her because she hates Jackie for some unknown reason. If they don't make up I will obviously leave both of them and convince them to be friends. After they are friends I will be back.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

If both of them just forgive each other and be friends then there won't be any problems in the future.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because the code of conduct is made to ensure that they act safe towards each other. If they both are constantly arguing then their friendship would be even more harder.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

Once I would forget about them but if they constantly argue to me then i will go face to face and ask them whats their problem and what i did. Or if we could forget about it and just be friends.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

the person spreaded rumours. ~~to~~ Some were true some wereent. when we had a chat about what happend we both apoligised to each other.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Be nice and respect the 'CODE OF CONDUCT'.
Don't take things literal and make a big deal about it.
Don't be pushy and bossy

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Marce FE

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.
Tell a teacher and try and clear the situation. Talk it out encourage Julia and Jackie to talk about it themselves without anyone there.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.
By being nice to each other and not talking about each other behind their back. Communication with their friends.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.
Yes it will help with this situation because it makes sure that people don't get hurt and their behaviour should be appropriate.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

94 AREE 7E

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation

In year 5 I went to gala day to play netball and someone was agreeing to the rules of the game so everyone started to have a fight. I dealt with this by telling the coach.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

The coach told me that the next game I will be watching out for the people that aren't playing it as your meant to.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

By respecting the rules of the game
Being friendly to all your team dont push someone so they get hurt.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

salam Issa.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would have a chat with Jackie and tell her what she's doing is not right at all and if she does anything like that one more time I would stop being her friend.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

The teacher can put Jackie on the side line until she starts to play fairly.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

I do not think a code of conduct would <sup>help.</sup> ~~help~~ because it's easy for people to break the rules.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I was very competitive that day and kept arguing with the referee. (they were cheating)

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

~~to~~ I did not say ~~any~~ anything rude and did not yell and scream at the ~~and~~ ref i was ~~xxxx~~ nice about it realise that it's just a game for fun and its not the world cup.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would go ~~and~~ help Jackie and see if she was ok. Then I would go to Julia to tell her that she did a bad thing and then go back to Jackie.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

Get Julia and Jackie to talk to each other, sorting out the problem.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

No, if Julia really hated Jackie, she would be able to find another way to hurt Jackie.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I just walked away and stopped being her friend

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

She stopped what she was doing to me and never got in my way again.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Don't be friends with people who are like that

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

Told Julia Jackie is ok, maybe Jackie is just think you are fine. She doesn't know she was really hurt you, because you are her friends, she laughed at you. She just don't know how to make you feel good.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

Let Jackie be careful what did her will do, and talk more with the Julia, let Julia try to not thinking understand why do the Jackie do like that

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because they understand more for each other, and can avoided these thing in the future.
same

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I will told my friends, I don't like her do like that.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

Make my friends know more about me and understand me, and I can understand more about what my friends think, be more good.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Be careful what happend, and if it hurt bad. told teacher. ~~she~~ told what I think of what should her do, let this things go.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would say that Jackie and Julia should get back to gether and Jackie Julia to be more nice.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

put rules in to the game

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

yes because if there are rules she would if had that accident

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.
I went to the group <sup>not</sup> ~~with~~ the Posen

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?
She loves ~~and~~ us alone

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.
don't hang out with someone like here

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would leave the both and let them solve out the issue themselves but if things get to physical I would stop Julia and help Jackie.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

I would tell Jackie to stay away from Julia and if anything else happens tell a responsible adult.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because Julia would have to follow the rules and when there are rules Julia can't do anything horrible to Jackie.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I stayed away from her until the flamer inside her has burned down then I started talking to her again.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

Well she could think why she did that to me and maybe ask herself why am I acting like this. At the end she just realised she was acting stupid.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Don't start fights. Play Fair Be Nice to EVERYONE
If you don't like someone stay away from them.
Be a good sportsman.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Karen

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would leave both of them because they obviously are not thinking about me. They are thinking about hurting each other.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

They could get expelled and move to different schools or ~~they could both solve the problem and be friends again.~~ They could both solve the problem and be friends again.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because I am pretty sure that both of them do not want to be in trouble.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

~~I would make julia listen to what jacie has to say and then make julia apologise to jacie for what she had done. I would try to solve a situation like this out.~~

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

~~Yes, it would be because not only does julia want to be my friend but so will jacie. Yes, because talk about instead of getting other in would be better.~~

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

~~Just be mature with a fight like this.
I would listen to what they want to say first.
I would walk away from a situation like this.~~

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Jacinta

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

If I was Julia I would have said to him why did you laugh at me. it was not even funny and would you like it if that was you.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

Jackie could have helped Julia get up then laughing at her, walking away.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

He could have listened to the rules and be fair.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Jacinta

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

He could have played fair and not hog.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

I said can you play fair and not ruff.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

play fair
be nice

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would go up to Jackie to see if she is okay and I would speak to Julia and say that's not a nice thing to do.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

You could have 1 of the girls reserve (off the field) while the other is playing or you could make the rules more stricter so that doesn't happen again.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

yes, to prevent people from getting hurt or to prevent them from doing something wrong without them knowing it.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I got into a physical fight with a girl from a different school at Joz-fag when i was representing my school.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

nothing, because we stopped fighting and i walked away and i got on the school bus and went to school.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

not say or do anything back to that person and just ignore them.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

I would run towards Jackie and help her and tell Julia that what she had done is very dangerous.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

I would tell Julia that Jackie wants to be her friend. Julia should have listened to what Jackie has to say. If there was code of conduct no one would get hurt.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

Yes, because if there was a code of conduct then Jackie wouldn't have gotten hurt and Julia will not be able to barge in front of Jackie.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

i talked to the person who wouldn't listen and asked why she didn't listen.

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

she started to listen to what other people had to say.

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Don't be friends with people who don't listen.
Stay away from situations you don't want to be in.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Read the following scenario and answer the questions below.

You are close friends with Julia who is in your PE class. Julia has had an argument recently with Jackie who you are also friends with. Julia constantly tries to convince you that Jackie is horrible and you should not be her friend. Jackie tries to tell you that she wants to be friends with Julia again but Julia does not want to listen.

One day in PE, your class is playing a game of soccer and you and Julia are placed on the same team. Jackie is placed on the opposing team. When Jackie gets the ball and starts dribbling, Julia runs towards her and barges her over, clearly aiming to hurt Jackie. Jackie is upset and has tears in her eyes, clearly she has been hurt. Julia laughs in her face and walks away, the teacher has blown the whistle to stop the game for a break.

1. Explain how you would respond to that situation as both Julia and Jackie's friend.

Go to Jackie and ask if she's ok then walk to Julia and ask her what's happening

After few days somehow make Jackie and Julia meet and let them have a chat.

2. Explain how this type of situation may be avoided in the future.

Be kind to everybody

Make sure Julia and Jackie are friends.

3. Would implementing a code of conduct help prevent this type of situation? Explain your answer.

No, because not everyone would be bothered reading it.

Sport Safety and Conflict Resolution

Think of another situation where you have been involved in conflict. Answer the following questions.

4. Explain how you dealt with conflict during that situation.

I teased them then realized that it was a misunderstanding.

---

---

---

---

5. What was effective about the way you dealt with it?

We talked to each other and told each other what we felt

---

---

---

---

6. List some ways you could avoid conflict like this in the future.

Be nice to them.

Make sure you don't keep stuff away from them

---

---

---

---